Your campus bookstore offers a Price Match guarantee. If you find your class texts cheaper at Barnes & Noble.com or Amazon.com, the campus bookstore will match the price at the time of purchase or up to 7 days after purchase. The book has to be sold and shipped from Barnes & Noble.com or Amazon.com and not a 3rd party seller or marketplace. It also has to be in stock at the bookstore and on either platform. Search for your course materials by the ISBN provided in this syllabus to ensure that your price match is acceptable. We also offer RENTALS on New & Used textbooks which saves up to 80% over purchasing. At the end of the semester during finals week until the last day of finals, there's Buyback where you can sell your textbooks back for up to 50% of what the bookstore sold it for provided it will be used for the following semester.

Technology Requirements

Canvas
You will use Canvas as your Learning Management System (LMS) in this class. Announcements, assignments, and often other course materials are available on the course Canvas site. You will be able to access your grades at all times in the course Canvas Grade Center.
If you need any Canvas support, you will find resources in this Student Guide to Canvas, and you can access Canvas help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week via Live Chat.

Hardware and Software Support
Find all of the technology platforms you have access to as a Kean student at the myApps Launchpad.
If you need help with any technology questions, you can find answers at the Kean Help Desk.

Email
All students must have a valid Kean email account. Please only communicate with me using your Kean email address.

Laptops
If you need a short-term loaner laptop, please visit the Learning Commons Technology & Equipment page. These devices are located at the front desk of the Learning Commons.

Assessment

The course includes attendance, exams, assignments, and a class project, a total of 1000 points.

Midterm-15%, Final exam -20%

Attendance-10%

Project - 20%

Two Assignment - 5%

Six in-class Quiz- 30%

Canvas/Class participation- Bonus points

Notes:

1. Makeup exams for quizzes, midterm, or finals will be allowed only if there's a medical emergency, and this must be supported by official documentation like a doctor's note or hospital records. Additionally, makeup exams must be taken within 7 days following the original exam date, unless the official documentation indicates a need for an extended period.

2. Attendance will be checked 10 times during the semester. Students must email the instructor to justify each absence. For the initial two absences, no evidence is required to avoid a penalty (a 1% deduction from the final grade). Starting with the third absence, documentation is needed to waive the penalty, like a doctor's note, a photo of a non-functional car, or a letter from an employer stating work obligations during lecture hours.

3. Late Policy (assignment and project): a 25% deduction for delays per week. Submissions will not be accepted after two weeks from the deadline.

Academic Alerts

Academic Alerts and Campus Referrals

Academic Alerts (AA) provide you with ongoing feedback on how you are performing in your classes. Your professor may contact other offices on campus via an Alert to provide you additional support. These alerts, sent via Navigate360, are not a grade and not reported in your permanent academic record. If you get an alert, it will give you instructions about what to do next.

For more information, please see the Undergraduate or Graduate Catalog

Expectations for Generative AI

Students are required to abide by the expectations for AI use outlined in Kean's Academic Integrity Policy. In summary, all courses follow the below expectations:

- Originality: Content created by AI cannot be presented as original student work.

- Citation and Attribution: In courses where AI use is permitted, any content generated by AI must be cited. Guidelines for citations can be found here.

- Integrity: Students are accountable for the accuracy and appropriateness of any content they create or publish, including AI-generated material.

- Consequences: Use contrary to the course policy and/or without proper acknowledgement is subject to the same rules and consequences outlined for integrity violations. Faculty may use various tools to check for AI, including: comparisons with other work, AI detection tools, verbal demonstration of mastery of content, and other relevant forms of evidence.

NOTE: If your instructor has additional (course specific) expectations related to AI use, they will be outlined in another section of this syllabus.

Course Policies

Provide Course Policies, if necessary, such as participation, etc. in addition to the following: Class Recordings (Live Sessions/Collaborate)- if applicable In this class software may be used to record live class discussions. As a student in this class, your participation in live class discussions will be recorded. These recordings will be made available only to students enrolled in the class, to assist those who cannot attend the live session or to serve as a resource for those who would like to review content that was presented. All recordings will become unavailable to students in the class when the course is closed. Students are not permitted to record (or download) the course experience. If a recording of the course is required for accommodation purposes students must make those arrangements with the Office of Accessibility Services. Students found to have recorded (or downloaded) course experiences without authorization are subject to review by the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards.

 Privacy Statement Assuring privacy among faculty and students engaged in online instructional activities helps promote open and robust conversations and mitigates concerns that comments made within the context of the class will be shared beyond the classroom. As such, recordings of instructional activities occurring in online classes may be used solely for internal class purposes by the faculty member and students registered for the course, and only during the period in which the course is offered.

Academic Policies

Attendance
Attendance is expected in all courses. Students are responsible for informing the instructor in advance or in a timely manner of the reasons for their absence. Typically, excused absences include illness, bereavement, or religious observances. Serious tardiness may be dealt with at the instructor's discretion.

Academic Integrity
Students are responsible for reviewing and understanding the University Academic Integrity Policy available via the following link: https://www.kean.edu/academic-integrity. Students are expected to submit their original work. Any use of generative AI - is subject to the same citation rules as any ideas, text, speech, or imagery derived from human authors as outlined in the Academic Integrity Policy. Instructors must indicate on the syllabus and/or individual assignment if the use of Kean University Learning Support Services (Tutoring and/or Writing Center) is permitted for take-home assignments/exams.

Video Recording of Class Sessions
In this course, class sessions may be recorded to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and to support the learning process. Software may be used to record live class discussions and/or remote sessions. As a student in this class, your participation in these sessions may be recorded. Recordings will be accessible only to students enrolled in the class for the duration of the course and will be deleted or made unavailable when the course concludes. Students are not permitted to create video or audio recordings of the course—including AI-generated transcripts—without permission from the instructor and other students. If you require course recording as an accommodation, contact Kean's Office of Accessibility Services. Recording may be used solely for internal class purposes and may not be posted or shared outside of the class.

Student Code of Conduct
Students should review the Student Code of Conduct, as it discusses expectations of appropriate conduct in the classroom. Contact the Office of Accountability, Standards and Education by phone at (908) 737-5240 or by email at conduct@kean.edu.

Emergency Notifications
Students are automatically registered for the University's emergency notification system (http://www.kean.edu/campusalert) through the contact information included in KeanWISE. This system enables university community members to be informed of campus emergencies, weather notices, and other announcements. Kean Ocean students would sign up via the following link: https://ocean.sendwordnow.com/LicensePage.aspx

Intellectual Property Policy

Public posting of course materials from this class is prohibited. Materials presented in the classroom are for the personal use of registered students during the semester only. Homework, programs, and other classwork should not be shared, distributed or publicized in any way, for the protection of other students and in respect of the intellectual property rights of the faculty and copyright owners. Kean University's Academic Integrity Policy can be found here: https://www.kean.edu/media/academic-integrity-policy

Nancy Thompson Learning Commons

Library Services
Email: library@kean.edu
Location: L109 - Nancy Thompson Learning Commons

The Nancy Thompson Learning Commons serves as the gateway to Kean University's library resources and services and is your one-stop shop for success in research, scholarship, and creative endeavors. The Learning Commons supports students, faculty, and staff with a wealth of resources and expert guidance:

‣ Extensive Collections: Explore our vast collection of digital and print library materials, including Open Educational Resources (OERs), carefully curated to meet your academic needs at all levels.

‣ Expert Research Assistance: Our friendly librarians are here to help. They will guide you through the research process, helping you develop valuable information literacy skills for effective searching, critical evaluation, and successful citation.

- Life-long Learning: These skills will not only support your academic journey but also equip you for ongoing research and learning throughout your career.

We encourage students to schedule research appointments with a librarian through links provided on the Research Support and Ask Us pages.

Learning Support Services (LSS) and The Writing Center (TWC)

Learning Support Services (LSS) and The Writing Center (TWC), located on the first floor of the Nancy Thompson Learning Commons, provide multidisciplinary, holistic, and targeted academic support for undergraduate and graduate students through multiple modalities, including one-to-one tutoring, small group instruction, and coaching. Anchored in empathy and evidence-based practices, our peer tutors are trained to understand students holistically as learners and design individualized support based on each student's strengths and academic needs. To learn more about our service, please visit our website.

Learning Support Services

Email: learningcommons@kean.edu
Location: L108- Nancy Thompson Learning Commons

LSS offers a comprehensive suite of academic support services designed to empower you throughout your academic journey. Our dedicated team is here to help you excel in your courses, develop essential skills, and build confidence as a learner.

Here's what we offer:

- Subject Tutoring: Get individualized support for a wide range of courses from experienced peer tutors. They'll help you grasp course content, answer your questions, and encourage active participation.

- Academic Coaching: Work one-on-one with a coach to develop personalized strategies for success. Our coaches can help you with time management, study skills, test preparation, and goal setting.

- Public Speaking Skills: Hone your public speaking skills with our supportive tutors. We'll guide you through crafting engaging presentations, delivering content effectively, and overcoming nerves. We can help with topics from dissertations to mock interviews.

- Supplemental Instruction (SI Sessions): Gain additional support in challenging STEM, accounting, and academic reading courses. SI sessions are led by highly successful undergraduate students who have excelled in those same courses. Expect practice problems, mock quizzes, and review games to solidify your understanding.

- Embedded Tutoring: Receive targeted writing support in specific General Education (GE) courses. Embedded tutors attend classes and offer additional small group sessions outside of class time to reinforce critical writing skills.

To book an appointment for any of our services, please visit tutoring.kean.edu.

Title IX Statement

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities. Sex discrimination, which includes discrimination based on sex stereotypes, sex characteristics, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation, gender identity and sex-based harassment, will not be tolerated at Kean University. Incidents of sexual discrimination should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator immediately.

Kean University is committed to providing a fair and impartial process for all parties involved. This includes supportive measures, a thorough investigation, and equitable resolutions.

For more information about the University's Title IX Policy and the rights and resources available to you, please visit Sexual Discrimination Policies and Procedures. For more information on Title IX, please see this link.

In the event that you choose to write or speak about having experienced sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, sexual exploitation or any other form of sexual and/or gender-based harassment, as a mandated reporter, I must notify the Title IX Office. They will contact you to let you know about accommodations and support services at Kean and reporting options both on and off campus. You have no obligation to respond to the Title IX Office or to meet with them to discuss support services and reporting options.

Study Abroad

Kean University students interested in studying abroad have a variety of options! Students can participate in a Travelearn, which is a short-term, faculty-led study abroad program that typically takes place during Spring Break or in the Summer. Kean University Behavioral Intervention Team (KUBIT)

KUBIT is a multidisciplinary team that provides caring support and collaboration through evidence-based risk assessment and interventions for any member of the Kean University community who may be exhibiting disruptive, distressed, changed, at-risk, and/or concerning behaviors. KUBIT serves six major functions for the University: provides consultation, education, and support to faculty, staff, and administration in assisting students who display concerning, at-risk, disruptive, distressed, or changed behaviors; gathers information to assess situations and behaviors involving referred students, recommends appropriate intervention strategies; connects students with needed campus and community resources; monitors the ongoing behavior of students who have concerning, at-risk, disruptive, distressed, or changed behaviors and identifies emerging behavioral and wellness trends within the student population. Faculty, staff, and students can make a KUBIT referral by filing a report at KUBIT INCIDENT REPORT. A KUBIT referral should be made for all levels of concerning behavior across the spectrum of risk from low to high.

KUBIT is not responsible for emergencies. In case of an emergency or if the concerned behavior poses an immediate threat to the student, community, or others, please contact University Police at 908-737-4800 (Union) and 732-255-0451 (Ocean) or DIAL 911.
